Unit description

This unit focuses on the principles of starting-up a new business venture. Throughout the session we will discuss and critically reflect upon the economic, technological, societal, and global dimensions of entrepreneurship, and explore a range of concepts, models and approaches that represent the theory of entrepreneurship. You will apply this knowledge to practice by working in teams to experience multiple aspects of a new venture start-up. These will include ethical, societal and financial considerations, the creativity of developing a business idea, the development and formulation of a business model and plan, as well as unique marketing issues, ownership, growth and global aspects of entrepreneurship. Successful completion of the unit will provide you with knowledge and tools that will support you in your own entrepreneurial endeavours.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Recognise and communicate the economic, technological, societal, and global dimensions of entrepreneurship.

Identify and explain a range of concepts, models and approaches that represent the theory of entrepreneurship and apply them to practical situations.

Work effectively in teams to experience all aspects of a new venture start-up and demonstrate interpersonal, leadership and communication skills, both written and verbal.

Critically reflect and write on the theory and nature of entrepreneurship and your associated learning experience

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
New Venture Start-up	55%	No	Weeks 2 - Week 12
In-class case study assessment	45%	No	Week 2,4,6 and 10

New Venture Start-up

Due: Weeks 2 - Week 12

Weighting: 55%

New Venture Start-up Assessment Summary Task Description

This assessment comes in two parts. The first part is the Pitch presentation of your business and the second part is the written business report of your new venture project.

Part 1: Business Pitch Presentation (25% = Individual mark worth 12.5% + Group mark worth 12.5%): Each entrepreneurial group must give a stand-up presentation of its new business venture in a pitch presentation. This presentation aims to impress and convince "investors" to invest in your venture.

Part 2: Written report (30% = Individual mark worth 15% + Group mark worth 15%): Your new venture business report is a professional document that presents your business opportunity within a framework that includes business models.

These business models should show how value is created, delivered and captured and need to be developed using relevant research methods and principles and by conducting research to recommend appropriate solutions to complex business problems. Your new venture will encompass entrepreneurial creativity in solving a problem and/or identifying gaps that are not filled by the current market. Your entrepreneurial new venture can be a commercial venture focused on financial rewards or a social venture to deliver social good.

Type of Collaboration Individual & Group Submission

Part 1: Business Pitch Presentation due in week 11 has two components. (1) The Pitch presentation will need to be recorded as video by groups and uploaded to YouTube. Please refer to the iLearn Unit page for more details. (2) In week 12 we will hold a Q&A session.

Part 2: Written report will be submitted via Turnitin link on iLearn

recorded as 15 min video. Part 2: Written report: 3000 word limit (+/- 10%), excluding references and appendices. Inherent Task Requirements All students need to physically attend seminar in week 12 for the Pitch Presentation Q&A session Late Submission

Part 1: Business Pitch Presentation: Absence without approved “Special Considerations” will be awarded 0 marks.

Part 2: Written report: Late Report must also be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 20% deduction). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise and communicate the economic, technological, societal, and global dimensions of entrepreneurship.
- Identify and explain a range of concepts, models and approaches that represent the theory of entrepreneurship and apply them to practical situations.
- Work effectively in teams to experience all aspects of a new venture start-up and demonstrate interpersonal, leadership and communication skills, both written and verbal.

In-class case study assessment

Due: Week 2,4,6 and 10

Weighting: 45%

In-class Case Study Assessment Summary Task Description

In-class case study assessment (45% = 3 out of 4 cases x 15% per case, 10% individual + 5% group). Students work in groups of four (4) on a case study that they have read and prepared ahead of time. Case studies and questions will be posted on iLearn.

Students need to conduct research and apply it to diagnose problem and recommend appropriate evidence-based solutions to complex business problems. Students will be marked on their individual response to questions (10%) as well as their group response (5%) following discussion. There will be 4 in-class assessments each worth 15% in weeks 2, 4, 6 and 10 and the best 3 will count towards your final mark. If you miss 1 case study assessment we will count the remaining 3 towards your final mark.

Type of Collaboration Individual & Group Submission Please refer to the iLearn Unit page.

Submit Online via Turnitin- Weeks 2, 4, 6 and 10. Format

Please refer to the iLearn Unit page.

Length Total of 1.5 hrs comprising 30 minutes individual case study assessment, 30 minutes group discussion and 30 minutes group case study response Inherent Task Requirements

Physical attendance is required in Seminars in weeks 2,4,6 and 10 to complete this task. Late Submission

No extensions will be granted. Absence without approved “Special Considerations” will be awarded 0 marks.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Recognise and communicate the economic, technological, societal, and global dimensions of entrepreneurship.
- Identify and explain a range of concepts, models and approaches that represent the theory of entrepreneurship and apply them to practical situations.
- Critically reflect and write on the theory and nature of entrepreneurship and your associated learning experience

Changes from Previous Offering

There is a different prescribed text, additional required readings and changes in assessments.

Global context and sustainability

This Unit introduces well established theories in the discipline of entrepreneurial behaviour and business strategy. The Unit offers students the opportunities to apply the disciplinary knowledge in the context of a challenging domestic and global business environment. Students are reminded to incorporate corporate governance, sustainability and ethics as they pursue entrepreneurial activities.

Research and Practice

This Unit requires students to conduct research which involves sourcing data and information from a wide range of sources including academic journals, websites, media news, industry and government reports. Students are reminded to be ethical and truthful in conducting and interpreting research. Academic honesty is to be adhered to at all times.
