Unit description

This unit introduces students to the Australian legal system, including relevant commercial legal principles and corporate law and regulation. After dealing with core aspects of rights and liabilities, and the characteristics of business organisations generally, the unit focuses on Australian company law. Students develop an understanding of the nature and function of a company, as well as the important issues concerning shareholder rights and the duties of directors. The unit also addresses issues relevant to companies and individuals in financial difficulty and insolvency law. Classes will include consideration of relevant legal issues, case law, and important sections of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and other relevant legislation.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

Examine the characteristics of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework including the characteristics and application of the law of contract

Distinguish between business organisations and assess how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution

Effectively recognise corporate management issues, in particular formulate an understanding of the role and obligations of directors.

Appraise and evaluate how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares.

Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Presentation	15%	No	Ongoing
Class Test	20%	No	Week beginning 26/8/2019
Assignment	15%	No	Ongoing
Final Examination	50%	No	University Examination Period

Presentation

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 15%

Each student will deliver a presentation in class. Presentations must contain accurate content and have clear structure; the student must effectively communicate and engage with the class. More information as to the presentation is available in the Assessment Guide on iLearn.

No extensions will be granted. This penalty does not apply for cases in which a Special Consideration application is made and approved.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Examine the characteristics of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework including the characteristics and application of the law of contract
- Distinguish between business organisations and assess how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognise corporate management issues, in particular formulate an understanding of the role and obligations of directors.
- Appraise and evaluate how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares.
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment.

Class Test

Due: Week beginning 26/8/2019

Weighting: 20%

The test will be administered in your seminar class in Week 5 of Session. Students must take the test in their allocated/scheduled seminar.

See Assessment Guide on iLearn for more information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Examine the characteristics of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework including the characteristics and application of the law of contract

Assignment

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 15%

In this assignment students are required to summarise and analyse the relevant issues arising from their presentation topic. It must show evidence of research. It must be submitted via iLearn/Turnitin no later than 5 pm on the 7th day following your date of presentation [that is, one week after your presentation]. A hard-copy of the assignment must also be submitted to your lecturer (handed-in) within the same time-frame [that is, one week after your presentation].

No extensions will be granted. Late tasks will be accepted up to 48 hours after the submission deadline. There will be a deduction of 10% of the total available marks made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission – 20% penalty). This penalty does not apply for cases in which a Special Consideration application is made and approved.

See Assessment Guide on iLearn for more information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Examine the characteristics of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework including the characteristics and application of the law of contract
- Distinguish between business organisations and assess how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognise corporate management issues, in particular formulate an understanding of the role and obligations of directors.
- Appraise and evaluate how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares.
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment.

Final Examination

Due: University Examination Period

Weighting: 50%

Examination Conditions: Formal, invigilated examination . See Assessment Guide on iLearn for more information.

Supplementary Exam:

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Special Consideration process the examination will be scheduled as per the Supplementary Examination timetable of the Faculty. Please note that the supplementary examination will be of a similar format to the final examination.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Effectively recognise corporate management issues, in particular formulate an understanding of the role and obligations of directors.
- Appraise and evaluate how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares.
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment.

Delivery and Resources

Classes

Classes will progress through the various Lecture Areas referred to in this Unit Guide. There may be some reorganisation, overlapping, and/or integration of areas to accommodate assessment, holiday scheduling, unit structure or class management. Note that together with the designated practice questions, the classes may cover other issues relevant to the unit.

The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at:

<http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

Students must remain in their allocated classes.

Required and Recommended Texts and/or Materials

Required Text: Quilter, Company Law Perspectives, 3rd ed. 2017, Thomson Reuters (Lawbook Co.)

Recommended: Lipton, Herzberg and Welsh, Understanding Company Law, Thomson Reuters (Lawbook Co.)

Both of the above can be purchased from the Macquarie University Co-op Bookshop, and are available in the Macquarie University library.

After considering the Australian legal framework and aspects of general commercial law the unit will focus on corporate issues and the relevance and effect of the Corporations Act. Note that certain relevant sections of the Corporations Act are set out in Company Law Perspectives 3rd ed. 2017. Statutes may be viewed in full at www.austlii.edu.au

Useful websites

- www.asic.gov.au
- www.asx.com.au
- www.takeovers.gov.au

By using www resources students are able to gain a perspective on their studies and be aware of real world situations where company law is relevant. Newspaper coverage of company law gives depth and realism to the formal explanations of the law in text.

Seminars may make use of PowerPoint; overhead projectors; visualisers.

Unit material is available on the learning management system (iLearn)

There is a web page for this unit.

This unit is taught by way of seminars. Practice questions are discussed to enable application of content.

Students should take responsibility for their own learning and this will incorporate reading as required, attendance at seminars, developing effective study strategies, reflection on their abilities, and a task oriented approach to assessment – that is, do not think solely about gathering information - think about what will be required - what makes for successful performance in tests and exams - how you will use the law you have studied. There are 2 main components of successful commercial and company law study: one is that students must have some knowledge of the core issues of the relevant topics [take short clear notes in classes, think about your task, involve yourself in classes], the second is that students will only be successful if they can apply what they have learned, that is, in your test, presentation, assignment, or exam, you have to be able to use the law to solve problems, communicate, analyse and explain.

Students should be ready to allocate at least 150 hours during semester time for ACCG 614. This includes all classes, assessment, personal study and other learning activities. Here is a sample breakdown of a student workload:

	Activities	Hours
1	Seminars including required assessment (3×13)	39
2	Assessment Task 1 (self-study plus preparation)	20
3	Assessment Task 2 (Self-study plus preparation)	20
3	Assessment Task 3 (self-study plus preparation)	21
4	Assessment Task 4 (self-study plus preparation)	50
	Total	150

Academic Honesty

The nature of scholarly endeavour, dependent as it is on the work of others, binds all members of the University community to abide by the principles of academic honesty. Its fundamental principle is that all staff and students act with integrity in the creation, development, application and use of ideas and information. This means that:

- all academic work claimed as original is the work of the author making the claim
- all academic collaborations are acknowledged
- academic work is not falsified in any way
- when the ideas of others are used, these ideas are acknowledged appropriately.

Further information on the academic honesty can be found in the Macquarie University Academic Honesty Policy at http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

Graduate Capabilities

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Examine the characteristics of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework including the characteristics and application of the law of contract
- Distinguish between business organisations and assess how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognise corporate management issues, in particular formulate an understanding of the role and obligations of directors.
- Appraise and evaluate how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares.
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment.

Assessment tasks

- Presentation
- Class Test
- Assignment
- Final Examination

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Examine the characteristics of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework including the characteristics and application of the law of contract
- Distinguish between business organisations and assess how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognise corporate management issues, in particular formulate an understanding of the role and obligations of directors.
- Appraise and evaluate how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares.
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment.

Assessment tasks

- Presentation
- Class Test
- Assignment
- Final Examination

Effective Communication

We want to develop in our students the ability to communicate and convey their views in forms effective with different audiences. We want our graduates to take with them the capability to read, listen, question, gather and evaluate information resources in a variety of formats, assess, write clearly, speak effectively, and to use visual communication and communication technologies as appropriate.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Examine the characteristics of the commercial legal environment and the Australian corporate legislative framework including the characteristics and application of the law of contract
- Distinguish between business organisations and assess how companies are formed, different types of companies and the relevance of the company constitution
- Effectively recognise corporate management issues, in particular formulate an understanding of the role and obligations of directors.
- Appraise and evaluate how shareholders rights are protected and how the Corporations Act regulates acquisition and disposal of shares.
- Critically assess corporate insolvency in the current regulatory environment.

Assessment tasks

- Presentation
- Class Test
- Assignment
- Final Examination

Changes from Previous Offering

The marks attributed to each of the presentation and the assignment have been reduced from 20% to 15% and the final examination has been increased from 40% to 50%.

Research and Practice, Global and Sustainability

This unit addresses global and sustainability issues as direct areas of study and as necessary implications arising from the materials, assessment and academic discussion and debate in classes/seminars. We promote sustainability by developing ability in students to research and locate information within legal and/or accounting disciplines. We aim to provide students with an opportunity to obtain skills which will benefit them throughout their career.

The text for this unit (Company Law Perspectives) is the result of research in relation to the area of company law. The material in the text provides you with a thorough coverage of the relevant issues. Interested students can pursue further research into any of the areas of this unit via the various scholarly journals focussing on company law. Examples of journals that can be consulted to follow up matters of interest are: Australian Journal of Corporate Law; Company and Securities Law Journal.
