Unit description

This unit introduces students to the key concepts of business operations from an international perspective. Major issues considered include: modes and patterns of international expansion; the management of international strategic cooperation; an emphasis on small to medium size businesses and how they compete on a global level; and the development of new international organisation forms and their implications for management. Structure and strategy are explored from the perspective of their roles as foundations of the organisation, with an emphasis on how all types of businesses have grappled with the operational and organisational challenges of international business.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

Individual Weekly Essay	20%	No	Random
Group Report	30%	No	Week 9
Final Examination	50%	No	Examination Period

Individual Weekly Essay

Due: Random

Weighting: 20%

Individual Weekly Essay Assessment Summary Task Description An essay requires the systematic investigation of a topic and the development of a written argument. Essays assess cognitive and research skills. Essays are expected to develop coherent arguments, be founded on thorough research, and provide insight into the topic area. Please check the weekly tutorial case and topical questions from the “Unit Schedule”. Type of Collaboration Individual Submission Please Submit Via Turnitin Link on iLearn. In class submission of coursework. Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length <2000 words Inherent Task Requirements None Late Submission

Late essays must be submitted through Turnitin. No extensions will be granted. There will be a deduction of 10% made from the total awarded mark for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late (for example, 25 hours late in submission incurs a 40% penalty). Late submissions will be accepted up to 96 hours after the due date and time.

This penalty does not apply for cases in which an application for Special Consideration is made and approved. Note: applications for Special Consideration Policy must be made within 5 (five) business days of the due date and time.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Understand the principles underlying the international expansion of firms
- Comprehend the key features of international business operations on the scale, scope and pace of international business activity
- Understand the main characteristics of the various foreign market entry strategies available to firms and the principles which govern the selection of these entry strategies

Group Report

Due: Week 9

Weighting: 30%

Group Report Assessment Summary Task Description

Analyse a real Australian Pharmaceutical company's internationalisation strategies to one of the emerging countries. Use three chapters' topics from your textbook as directions of your discussion.

A group report is a written document outlining the results of a detailed analysis of a situation using empirical data and research. Reports are used to assess critical thinking, analytical and research skills. As this is a group exercise all members of the group are expected to contribute actively and substantially. While it is understood that some members of the group may have different input in the research and the written component the group will be required to acknowledge that all group members have given quality time to the project.

Type of Collaboration Group Submission Please Submit Via Turnitin Link on iLearn Format Please refer to the iLearn Unit page Length 5,000 Words Inherent Task Requirements None Late Submission

Graduate Capabilities

Capable of Professional and Personal Judgement and Initiative

We want our graduates to have emotional intelligence and sound interpersonal skills and to demonstrate discernment and common sense in their professional and personal judgement. They will exercise initiative as needed. They will be capable of risk assessment, and be able to handle ambiguity and complexity, enabling them to be adaptable in diverse and changing environments.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand the main characteristics of the various foreign market entry strategies available to firms and the principles which govern the selection of these entry strategies
- Collaborate effectively with a team to write a case study report with detailed analysis of a firms situation using empirical data and research

Assessment tasks

- Group Report
- Final Examination

Discipline Specific Knowledge and Skills

Our graduates will take with them the intellectual development, depth and breadth of knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specific subject content in their chosen fields to make them competent and confident in their subject or profession. They will be able to demonstrate, where relevant, professional technical competence and meet professional standards. They will be able to articulate the structure of knowledge of their discipline, be able to adapt discipline-specific knowledge to novel situations, and be able to contribute from their discipline to inter-disciplinary solutions to problems.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand the principles underlying the international expansion of firms
- Comprehend the key features of international business operations on the scale, scope and pace of international business activity
- Appreciate the nature of international firms specifically, their strategy, organisation and nationality
- Understand the main characteristics of the various foreign market entry strategies available to firms and the principles which govern the selection of these entry strategies

Assessment tasks

- Individual Weekly Essay
- Group Report
- Final Examination

Critical, Analytical and Integrative Thinking

We want our graduates to be capable of reasoning, questioning and analysing, and to integrate and synthesise learning and knowledge from a range of sources and environments; to be able to critique constraints, assumptions and limitations; to be able to think independently and systemically in relation to scholarly activity, in the workplace, and in the world. We want them to have a level of scientific and information technology literacy.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand the principles underlying the international expansion of firms
- Comprehend the key features of international business operations on the scale, scope and pace of international business activity
- Appreciate the nature of international firms specifically, their strategy, organisation and nationality

- Collaborate effectively with a team to write a case study report with detailed analysis of a firms situation using empirical data and research

Assessment tasks

- Individual Weekly Essay
- Group Report
- Final Examination

Problem Solving and Research Capability

Our graduates should be capable of researching; of analysing, and interpreting and assessing data and information in various forms; of drawing connections across fields of knowledge; and they should be able to relate their knowledge to complex situations at work or in the world, in order to diagnose and solve problems. We want them to have the confidence to take the initiative in doing so, within an awareness of their own limitations.

This graduate capability is supported by:

Learning outcomes

- Understand the principles underlying the international expansion of firms
